LIABILITY

- Your organization agrees to protect, indemnify, defend, and hold harmless The hotel and its employees and agents against all claims, losses, or damage to persons or property, government charges, fines, and costs (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising out of or connected with the use of the facilities, including but not limited to the installation, removal, maintenance, occupancy or use of the premises, or any part thereof, by Organization, or any guest, invitee or agent of Organization or any independent contractor hired by Organization, except those claims arising out of sole negligence or willful misconduct of The hotel .
- The hotel is not responsible for loss or damage to any property, which the organization or its guests bring to the hotel before, during, or after the use of the facilities.

MISCELLANEOUS

- If our obligations under this agreement are not met for any reason beyond our control, our failure is completely excused and we may cancel this Agreement by returning your deposit. The following is a partial list of events that, if they occur, would be considered reason beyond our control: strikes, labor disputes, accidents, government restrictions on travel, hotel operations, goods or supplies, acts of war and acts of God. If, for any reason, the reserved space is not available for the function, other space of comparable quality in the Hotel will be substituted for and accepted by you.
- The hotel reserves the right to make the final decision concerning the suitability of holding a function outdoors or relocating it indoors due to inclement weather. The decision of the Hotel will be final. All contracted entertainment must conclude no later than 9:00PM in the garden area (music must end at 9 PM) and 1:00 AM in the ballroom(s). Set up times will be determined by the Convention Services Departments.
- Any function that has an admission charge or fee, or has merchandise for sale, must be approved by the hotel and licensed. A copy of the Certificate must be presented to your Convention Services Manager three (3) days prior to the event.
- There will be a handling charge for incoming and outgoing packages. Contact your Convention Services Manager for more information.

FLOOR PLANS

Floor plans for meetings and food and beverage functions with 300 people or more must be approved thirty (30) days prior to the date of the function(s). Therefore, all decorations, audiovisual, and room setup requirements must be received by the Catering Department no later than forty-five (45) days prior to function(s).

Floor plans are final once they are approved by the Fire Department. Therefore, no changes or alterations can be made with the exception of deleting equipment, tables, and decorations.

If requirements are not received by your Convention Services Manager forty-five (45) days prior to function(s), the room setup will be at the Hotel's discretion.

DECORATIONS

It is the responsibility of the organization to ensure their contracted decorator provides your Convention Services Manager with all proper certification of fire-retardant materials for submission. This must be done at the same time as the submission of the floor plan.
